

I am very concerned over the ruling handed down by the FCC in the case where Bono said the "F" word on the Golden Globe Award. It is NEVER EVER OK to use that word, especially over public airwaves. I am already dissapointed that the FCC has let the decency standards it used to enforce slip to where they have today. Please don't let them slip further and further towards vulgarity and indecency. Reverse that ruling and start cleaning up the public airwaves. Thankyou.
